

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Workplace Spanish® Learning Kit for Human Resource Professionals

Roswell, GA, September 15, 2009 - Workplace Spanish, Inc. has introduced its completely updated “Workplace Spanish® for Human Resources” program designed to help English speaking human resources staff, and general supervisors, communicate with Spanish-speaking applicants and employees.

Available from the company’s website as a “learning kit, the package includes a 70-page manual, 2 audio CDs, and the company’s exclusive Click It® CD-ROM. It covers all the important conversational expressions as well as key job-related topics including Interviewing Applicants, Checking References, Performance Expectations, Scheduling Employees, Pay and Benefit Information, and handling Accident & Emergencies.

Tom Sutula, President of Workplace Spanish, Inc. stated “Human Resources is the hub of most organizations beginning with job applicants walking through the door. Our easy to use learning tools enable English-speakers to better communicate with Hispanic applicants and associates. This will result in better selection, evaluation and understanding which translates into smoother, more efficient operations.”
